These two doubted as to the fact of sanity. Joseph Joux.--Was servant of bis Royal Highness at the time in question. Was footman, and has mee been in the service of the king of Belgium. Has seen the -k and the alleged deposition. Wer stated what is contained in that deposition. What is stated there about witness is false. Never laid a sword in the Duke s bedchamber as stated. Went for Sir H. Halford. Believes Neale first gave the alarm. Did not see the Duke till at Carlton Palace. All that is in the supposed deposition as to the wounds is false. Witness never saw them. Never gave any deposition, nor was ever asked. Never stated what is alleged in that deposition about Lord Ellenborough. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.--I slept in my apartments in St. James s on the 31st of May, 1810. In the course of the night I was awakened by a blow on my head; it was between two and three in the morning. I had been the evening before at the Ancient Concert. The blow was struck on the right side of my head. I was in a sort of half-sleep, and my first impression was, that something had fallen on my head. It was repeated. One of them made...
