

Remembering Lorelei - A Legend for a Soulmate

By King Richard L.

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; Description: Richard King is a Professional Engineer who spent most of his career in the aerospace industry prior to acting as a consultant, a Lecturer at a Military College, College of Advanced Education and a University. The book charts Richard's early life, education and entry into the engineering profession, via Technical College and Brunel University, meeting his wife, Jo, employment with an aircraft company, a spacecraft company and a consultancy, starting a family, returning to Brunel University for a Master's Degree and setting up his own consultancy. All of those events ran alongside a growing interest in, involvement with and experience of higher matters, and the nature of physical reality, which appeared as far more an act of engineering than of science, particularly following an opening up of the senses of seeing, hearing and feeling at levels well beyond just the physical. Then came a meeting with a significant discarnate person with whom he had shared many lifetimes, who used the name Lorelei, appeared to be connected with the Legend of that name, though is very different from it, and learning that the Soulmate relationship is far more than earthly perceptions of such matters....
