A careful examination, by the Commissioners, of that portion of the Park, that would be affected by the proposed changes, showed that in one or two respects the surface of the Park would be more or less injured, while in other respects the changes would be distinctly advantageous. After full consideration of the matter by the Commissioners, and protracted negotiations with the Company, an agreement was arrived at. under the terms of which the principal changes desired by the Company were approved, but subject to such conditions as will not only properly safeguard the Park interests, but which will at the same time enable the carrying out of several very important improvements, which the Commissioners...
