Excerpt from Judas Judas Judas who sold his lord: - alone he walks Dream-haunted through the grey, where not a star Glimmers, nor any dawn breeze whispers hope. A wilderness surrounds him league on league Forlorn with desolation to its bounds. Full in the dreary midst a little lake Lies stagnant, and above him dusky clouds Pursue in muffled majesty of woe A dreary course from east to dreary west. I met him on the threshold of a dream, And felt amid the gloom his startled eyes, Still luminous with half-forgotten light, Weary and large from striving to remember; And then his face, emerging from a mist, Took gradual form and colour, till I saw Dimly a red beard flecked with grey, a mouth Thin-lipped and babbling inarticulate sounds, Curved nose, thick eyebrows, feathery hair, which lean Long fingers had dishevelled, last of all A stooping form and sudden crafty gaze Sideward. - He hesitated, then he drew From underneath his raiment something bright, About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic...
