Warburg, and the Railroad Executives. All these plans contain very interesting proposals, and the high character and ability of their authors entitle them to great respect. It seems to me, however, that the plan proposed by your Association and called by your name is the only one which deals adequately with the real difficulty in the Railroad situation. I think you have put your hook into the key log of the jam in which our railroads are piled up without power to move forward, and I think no one else has. I should not venture to say this were I not satisfied that the real difficulty is not a matter of banking or of railroad operation, or of division between Federal and State control, but that it is a very simple and stubbornly held opinion about railroad profits which prevails among the people...
